TORONTO, CANADA

and
Sleep Clinic, Baharloo Hospital
THE INTERNATIONAL CAMPUS OF TEHRAN UNIVERSITY OF MEDICAL SCIENCES (TUMS)

Recognizing the existence of specific bilateral interests and cooperation in academic education, medical sciences, health promotion, new technologies and other topics of mutual interest, and in order to establish and further promote the bilateral educational and academic collaboration, sleep and alertness clinic, Toronto, Canada and the Sleep Clinic of Baharloo Hospital, the International Campus of TUMS, referred to hereinafter as "the Parties", hereby agree upon the following terms and conditions as set forth in this Memorandum of Understanding (MOU):

Article I: General Principles

The aim of this Memorandum of Understanding is to establish and expand academic cooperation between sleep and alertness clinic, Toronto and the Sleep Clinic of Baharloo Hospital. Cooperation under this Memorandum of Understanding is meant to support and improve relations between the Parties and will in no way limit such relationships. The Parties will make every effort to identify areas of cooperation that are mutually advantageous.

Article II: Areas and Forms of Cooperation

- A. The Parties will increase cooperation in a broad range of medical and public health sciences, directing their efforts at increasing collaboration in areas of mutual interest including inter alia the following activities:
1. Joint research activities
 2. Exchange of faculty members, research scholars and students
 3. Exchange of scientific, educational and scholarly materials
 4. Exchange of information and participation in seminars and academic meetings
 5. Joint degree programs
 6. Special short-term academic programs and training activities
 7. Organization of events such as seminars, workshops, symposia and conferences congruent with the objectives of the programs underway in both institutions
- B. As part of their cooperation, the sleep and alertness clinic of Toronto, and the Sleep Clinic of Baharloo Hospital, will take steps, when possible and when appropriate, to foster direct contacts between the academic staff of both institutions.
- C. Either Party agrees to inform the other Party about the conferences, scientific meetings, academic gatherings and seminars organized by the Party, and will exchange documents and publications resulting from their activities.
- D. According to each country's regulations, the Parties will facilitate lecturers', researchers' and students' participation in courses, conferences, seminars and conferences organized by the partner institution.

Article III: Financing

The Parties agree that the activities referred to under the present Memorandum of Understanding will be financed with funds allocated under their respective budgets, subject to the availability of said funds and the laws and regulations of each country. Prior to the initiation of any particular cooperative project or program, all financial details should be negotiated and agreed upon by both institutions.

Article IV: Entry into Force, Modifications and Termination

The present Memorandum of Understanding will take effect on the date of its signature and will have duration of five years, renewable upon written notification.

The cooperation referred to under the present Memorandum of Understanding will not affect the rights and obligations acquired by the Parties under other national or international agreements entered into by either Party or its government.

The present Memorandum of Understanding may be amended by mutual consent of both Parties, formalized in written form specifying the date on which such amendments are to take effect.

Either Party may cancel the present Memorandum of Understanding at any time, provided a three-month written notice in advance.

The present document is formulated and signed in two originals in English. One original will remain in possession of sleep and alertness clinic, Toronto, Canada and the other will be kept by the Sleep Clinic of Baharloo Hospital, the International Campus of TUMS and both will have the same legal validity.

We, the undersigned, agree to the conditions stated in this Memorandum of Agreement.
