

Memorandum of Understanding for Academic and Research Cooperation, and Exchange between
Istanbul Medipol University (Istanbul, Turkey)
and
Tehran University of Medical Sciences (Tehran, Iran)

This Memorandum of Understanding is the establishment of academic, scientific and cultural collaboration between the two institutions and development of joint academic programs in the field of mutual interest, Istanbul Medipol University and Tehran University of Medical Sciences (TUMS) enter into this Memorandum of Understanding (MoU) to promote joint educational and cultural collaboration and agree as follows:

Sides in this cooperation are Prof. Dr. Ömer CERAN, the Rector, on behalf of the Istanbul Medipol University (hereinafter referred to as IMU) and Prof. Mohammad Hossein Ayati, Vice Chancellor for Global Strategies and International Affairs, on behalf of the Tehran University of Medical Sciences (hereinafter referred to as TUMS).

Recognising the mutual interest in establishing and developing a cooperative relationship between the two institutions, and within their respective powers, the sides agree on the following:

Article 1. Scope of Collaboration

1.1 Areas of collaboration may be proposed by either institution and may include, but are not limited to:

- i. Undergraduate, master and PhD student exchanges for studies, trainings and/or internships,
- ii. Exchange of faculty members,
- iii. Cooperation in Erasmus projects,
- iv. Elaboration of joint research projects,
- v. Organisation of joint seminars, conferences, symposia and public lectures,
- vi. Exchange of books, audio-visual materials, publications,
- vii. Organisation of joint cultural and educational activities,
- viii. Facilitation of visits to educational, scientific, and cultural sites for academic purposes,

1.2 Depending on these and hereafter cooperation may be extended to other fields. And each condition will require a separate written agreement which will set forth the terms and conditions of the project(s) including but not limited to intellectual property ownership and funding sources. These agreements must be approved and signed by appropriate administrators at each institution.

1.3 All activities shall be subject to the availability of funds and the approval of each institution's authorized representatives if required and agreed by both parties.

Article 2. Financial Conditions

2.1 No financial commitment is undertaken by the institutions as a result of signing this Memorandum of Understanding. Financial needs such as travel fare, accommodation and health insurance of exchange beneficiaries are met by the exchange subjects. The outgoing students or academic personnel are obliged to have general and health insurances covering the exchange period. The hosting institution does not take any financial responsibility for the incoming students/personnel.

Article 3. Recognition and Validation and Duration

3.1 In the case of student mobility or joint study programs, within the framework of international programs or exchanges, a system for mutual academic recognition and validation will be established.

3.2 The mentioned system must be described in each specific protocol and be approved by the corresponding academic authorities of each university.

3.3. This Memorandum of Understanding is drawn in English language in two copies whereas both originals have equal legal value and are kept by the sides. The MoU will be valid for five (5) years from the date of its last signature. Any amendments to this MoU can only be made in writing through mutual consent of the sides. Such amendments will become an integral part of the Memorandum of Understanding.

3.4 The suggested changes/cancellation has to be communicated to the other side at least six (6) months prior the designed amendment date. Should the Memorandum of Understanding be denounced, both sides undertake to finish those studies and projects which may be pending completion.

Article 4. Coordination

4.1 Each side will nominate a person among related departments/units to be responsible for coordinating and supervising the activities to be carried out within the framework of the MoU.

4.2 The coordinators will maintain regular contact with each other with the purpose of supporting the development of cooperation.

Article 5. Project Outcomes and Intellectual Property Rights

5.1 All the intellectual properties created from the joint activities carried out under this Memorandum of Understanding will be possessed by both parties, unless otherwise specified.

5.2 None of the parties shall use the name, logo, likeness, trademarks, image or other intellectual property of either of the other parties for any advertising, marketing, endorsement or any other purposes without the specific prior written consent of an authorized representative of the other party as to each such use. Home and Host Institutions may mention their affiliation with both in public information materials related to the relevant program. However, Home and Host Institutions reserve the right to review and request modifications to how they are referenced by both, as necessary.

Article 6. Non-discrimination

6.1 The parties agree not to discriminate on the basis of religion, race, creed, national or ethnic origin, sex, age, handicap, political affiliation, disability or status as a veteran.

Article 7. Compliance with Local Law & Regulations

The parties specifically intend to comply with all applicable laws, rules and regulations as they may be amended from time to time. If any part of this MoU is determined to violate federal, state, or local laws, rules, or regulations, the parties agree to negotiate in good faith revisions to any such provisions. If the parties fail to agree within a reasonable time to revisions required to bring the entire MoU into compliance, either party may terminate this Memorandum of Understanding upon thirty (30) days prior written notice to the other party.

Article 8. Severability

The provisions of this Memorandum of Understanding are severable, and if any provision of this MoU is found to be invalid, void or unenforceable, the remaining provisions will remain in full force and effect.

Article 9. Supporting the Cooperation

Both sides will insure active cooperation between their liaison persons upon activation of this Memorandum of Understanding.
