

Background Courses

These courses offer to make up for the deficiencies of an individual student:

Psycholinguistic (Theoretical: 2 credits)

Medical Information Systems (Theoretical: 0.5 credit and practical: 0.5 credit)

Core Courses

These are the compulsory courses the students need to register:

Advanced Research Methods (Theoretical: 1 credit and practical: 1 credit)

Neuroscience I (General) (Theoretical: 3 credits)

Neuroscience II (Developmental Cognition) (Theoretical: 3 credits)

Neuroscience III (Vestibular and Auditory Systems) (Theoretical: 3 credits)

Advanced Psycholinguistic (Theoretical: 2 credits)

Laboratory Animal Research (Theoretical: 2 credits and practical: 1 credit)

Cognition and Language (Theoretical: 2 credits)

Seminars in Audiology (Theoretical: 2 credits)

Non- Core courses

The student has the flexibility of selecting the elective courses from the under mentioned courses offered:

Statistical Softwares (Theoretical: 1 credit and practical: 1 credit)

Principals and Methods of Auditory and Vestibular Systems Imaging (Theoretical: 2 credits)

New methods in Auditory Electrophysiology (Theoretical: 2 credits)

New methods in Vestibular System Evaluation (Theoretical: 2 credits)