

Call for Art and Music Festival

Corona Fighters

In addition to displaying the social function and power of art, the Corona Art and Music Festival strives to support all those who deal with Corona, including health professionals, health workers, factory workers, health charities, and so on.

The festival is held on the fields of music, painting, photography, short films, animation and infographics. The festival is open to all unprofessional and professional artists.

Terms and Conditions of Submission:

- The technique and method of presentations are free.
- Each artist is allowed to submit a maximum of 3 works.
- The artist can submit an image and a description of the work.
- In the fields of painting, photography and infographic, you need a JPEG file with a resolution of 300 and a maximum size of 50 x 70 which should be sent to the festival email address {tums.marketing@gmail.com} or through WhatsApp channel with this number 0098 921 4032 2641.
- For music, video and animation, uploaded files must be up to 20MB.
- There is no limitation for production date, but pre-published works in the cyberspace do not have the right to participate again.
- Works on which any information such as name, signature, logo, watermark and etc. are added, will be displayed but will not be judged.
- Choosing a title, or writing a Statement of Art for the work is essential and can help for better understanding of the work (maximum of 200 words).
- Topics: Care Advices, Daily Life during Corona Crisis, Quarantine Experience during Corona Crisis, Life of Corona Fighters, Supporting Corona Fighters.
- Submission Deadline: April 15, 2020 (Farvardin 26, 99).
- Language: No language limitation.
- Showcase of Works: Website and Social Networks.
- Judging Process: Group of judges and audiences.
- Special prize (USD): Original selected artwork.
- Accepted works will be presented at the virtual exhibition.
- The participant in the festival is the owner of the work therefore, the responsibility for any lawsuit in this area is not the responsibility of the festival.
- The organizer will have the right to use the works for cultural and non-commercial use.
- Participating in the festival means acceptance of the call and the items listed in the general call of the festival.
- It is the responsibility of the secretary of the festival to decide on unforeseen cases.

Address and Contact Number of the Festival Secretariat:

Tehran University of Medical Sciences

International Vice President

Office of International Development and Marketing

No 21, Dameshq Street, Vali-e-Asr Square, Tehran, Iran. Postal Code:1416753955 Telephone: 0098 21 8891 2090