

The following Student Code of Conduct (SCC) has been compiled in the framework of educational Acting

Student Code of Conduct (SCC):

regulations of Iranian and global universities, with respect to Islamic principles, aiming at facilitating education process, protecting students' dignity and paying tribute to professors, patients and colleagues.

according to the SCC will guarantee medical ethics and professional behavior.

- Students have to dress in accordance with Islamic codes and Iran's regulations.
- Students have to dress neatly in all academic areas as a measure of students' dignity.
- Students are required to enter the class before the professors, otherwise, and in case they leave the educational and remedial place without permission, they may be given a sack.
- Eating, drinking and chewing gum are forbidden while studying in all educational environments.
- Male students are required to have regular haircuts and female students have to cover their hair under a suitable wimple.
- Having abnormal hair styles and hair colors is prohibited.
- Wearing sandals and slippers is banned in all clinical and non-clinical environments and students are allowed to wear open toe shoes only in non-clinical areas.
- Male students are expected to wear simple style beard and mustache.
- Students should refrain from wearing flashy garish clothes.

- Students should avoid wearing tight clothes and also the ones with noticeable logos.
- Wearing sport clothes in all academic areas, except for dormitories and sport venues, is forbidden.
- Wearing a hat in all clinical and non-clinical educational venues and in other indoor areas of the university is prohibited.
- Male students are only permitted to use watch and a ring and female students are also allowed to wear a watch, ring and a bracelet.
- Putting on heavy makeup and wearing perfumes with strong smells is prohibited.
- Wearing sunglasses in all clinical and non-clinical academic venues and in other indoor areas is forbidden.
- Students should cut their nails short and applying any kind of nail polish and having nail implant is forbidden.
- Students should avoid talking on the cell phone and using any kind of audio video appliances in all educational and remedial venues while studying.
- Students are recommended not to wear jeans or to wear simple form of jeans.
- Students should wear white clothes with fastened buttons in all clinical and laboratory areas.
- Students should avoid wearing tops under their white medical clothes and they have to wear suitable clothes under the white uniform.
- Students have to badge their identification cards in all areas in which they have to wear white clothes.
- Smoking is forbidden in all areas of the university.
- Any misconduct such as aggressive behavior and harassment is banned in all university campus.

- Students should introduce themselves to the patients in the hospitals and ask for permission in case they want to gain medical case history.
- Not following the aforementioned codes will prevent the students from taking part in class or educational environments.